Naveed Khan

The Pakistan National Council of the Arts (PNCA) has beautifully showcased Naveed Khan as a visionary contemporary artist whose work seamlessly blends artistic mastery with deep cultural narratives. Through The Magic of Pastels, PNCA highlights his significant contributions to the art world, emphasizing his versatility as a painter, educator, and curator. His creative journey, spanning over 70 exhibitions, is portrayed as a testament to his dedication to both the academic and professional art spheres. By hosting this solo exhibition, PNCA not only honors his artistic achievements but also provides a platform for audiences to experience the depth, emotion, and technical brilliance of his pastel artworks.
